

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

RS18691

Under current code, virtual charter schools are granted their charters from the Idaho Public Charter School Commission with no input from local districts which are affected. This bill requires the Commission to notify the district in which the charter has a physical presence as well as other districts within their primary attendance area should that area be five or fewer districts. Further, districts that are notified are allowed to present testimony concerning such a petition at the Charter Commission hearing.

FISCAL NOTE

Fiscal impact - Cost of mailing notices.
